

BAN KUAN POM

KUAN MEANS FOOTHIL POM MEANS FORT

History

- An ancient community with a history dating back approximately 100 years.
- It is believed to be one of the earliest instances where people started living together as a community. As time progressed, the community expanded, and people began to establish households in other villages across the region.
- The name "Ban Kuan Pom" is a reflection of the village's enduring legacy as a community that played a pivotal role in the early settlement and development of the region.

Location

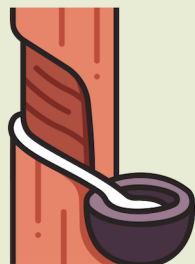

Located in Keng Subdistrict, about 15 kilometers southeast of Cha-uat District Office. The village is also approximately 2 kilometers away from the Keng Subdistrict Administration Organization.

Main occupation

Wickerwork

Rubber plantation

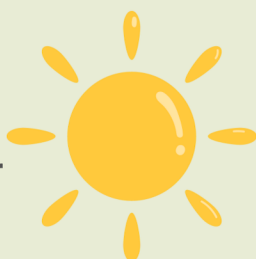

Oil Palm plantation

Climate

Summer

Rainy

- Rainy season from May to December
- summer from January to March
- Hot and humid weather with abundant rain.

This info-sheet is produced by MAHFSA Programme to support the Joint Activity: Exchange Study Visit to Thailand, November 2023

Source of reference

Please scan